

MERITOR, INC.
COMPENSATION AND MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
CHARTER

A committee of the Board of Directors, to be known as the Compensation and Management Development Committee, be, and it hereby is, designated to consist of at least three and not more than six members of the Board of Directors who shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and at least two of whom shall meet the “non-employee” director requirements of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which Committee shall be charged with discharging the Board of Directors’ responsibilities relating to compensation of the Corporation’s executives and preparing a report on executive compensation to be included in the Corporation’s annual proxy statement, and which Committee shall have the following powers and duties and shall report thereon to the Board of Directors:

1. Fix salaries and annual incentive opportunities of all executive officers, regardless of rate, and review annually the salary and annual incentive opportunity plan for other executives in a position with equivalent responsibilities for a business unit for which salary grades are not assigned;
2. Evaluate the performance of this Corporation's executive officers and other senior executives and plans for management succession and development, either as a committee or together with the other independent directors (as directed by the Board);
3. Review the design and competitiveness of this Corporation's compensation plans and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to these plans and other executive compensation;
4. Administer this Corporation's incentive, deferred compensation, stock option and long-term incentives plans and any employment, severance, change in control or similar agreements applicable to the Corporation’s executive officers and other senior executives, in each case pursuant to the terms of the respective plans;
5. Review and approve goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Corporation’s Chief Executive Officer, evaluate the Chief Executive Officer’s performance in light of those goals and objectives, and have authority to set the Chief Executive Officer’s compensation based on this evaluation, either as a committee or together with the other independent directors (as directed by the Board);
6. Periodically review proposed material amendments to the design and competitiveness of this Corporation’s medical benefit plans;
7. Review for recommendation to the Board of Directors all material amendments to the Corporation’s pension and other retirement plans;
8. Sole authority to engage consultants, independent counsel and other advisors as the Committee deems appropriate, and approve the related fees and retention terms, but only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to the advisors’ independence from management, including those specified in Section 303A.05(c)(iv) of the NYSE Listed Company Manual;
9. Review and discuss with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis (“CD&A”) to be included in the Corporation’s annual proxy statement, and, based on such review and discussion, determine whether or not to recommend to the Board of Directors that the CD&A be so included;
10. Oversee the Corporation’s compliance with rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and NYSE relating to shareholder approval of certain executive compensation matters; and
11. Review annually the Committee’s performance.

Committee members shall be appointed by and may be replaced by the Board of Directors. The Committee structure and operations shall be governed by Section 3.15 of the Corporation's By-Laws.

The Corporation shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for compensation to any advisors that the Committee chooses to engage and for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

Rev. 9/23/2021